

8. ALEXANDRA KAUKA, an Austrian born artist, refined her technique at the prestigious Art Students League in New York. She has a passion for gentle abstraction of mystical nature. Her art shows places that are sublime and meditative, imaginary worlds but beyond abstraction, one sees and feels reality. Some of her methods are very scientific, resulting in masterfully executed layered affects, truly organic and random in nature. Pictured is "Iris", 34" x 44", mixed media, acrylic, impasto, gold leaf. Visit www.artistalexandra.com or email kaukaart@gmail.com

9. KRISTEN STEPHEN is a Toronto-based abstract artist working with India inks on canvas. Her intuitive, layered process draws from the subconscious and spontaneous mark making. "Opaline Blue" embodies this approach with its fluid forms and vivid depth.
