

10. Cornish artist JUSTINE HINE explores harmony through guided geometry and serene balance in Shangri-La, named for the fabled sanctuary of peace and beauty. The work evokes a personal utopia with soft blush tones drifting across deep green bands in a meditative composition, where stillness and movement meet in quiet grace. Visit www.justinehineart.co.uk email sales@justinehineart.co.uk or follow @justinehine_artist on Instagram.

11. ROUPELL & CO. FINE ART is a London-based gallery specialising in 20th-century and contemporary art, represented by this immediately effulgent still life by Bernard Myers. The gallery endeavours to show works that balance visual pleasure with thought-provoking concepts. Visit roupellco.com or follow @roupellcofineart on Instagram.

12. FERAY GÜLSEVEN's "Psycho-Organic Fantastical Narrative" blends subconscious psycho-mythological imagery with organic forms and fantastical associations. Through layered transformations of colours and figures, her work invites exploration of inner myths. Narrative becomes infinite possibilities of the collective subconscious. Visit feraygulseven.com and follow @feraygulsevenart on Instagram.

13. JOY DAHLMANN, a Mixed Media Artist based in Beckum, creates visual narratives that balance emotion and lightness. Her works intertwine childlike intuition with artistic precision, inviting viewers to rediscover their own inner stories - poetic memories expressed through color, texture, and feeling. Visit www.joydahlmann.de and follow @joydahlmann_kunstmitfreude on Instagram.

14. PHILIP CARTER MA(RCA) is an artist and maker based in South West London. Combining collage, colour and composition, his graphic works bely a 45-year career in design. Pictured is 'Fig Tree', 2018. 122cm x 92cm. Collage and acrylic on canvas. Visit www.philipmarkcarter.com or follow @canarycarlo on Instagram for his most recent commissions.

15. HAVILAH ABREGO is an artist and naturalist based in Honolulu, Hawai'i. Pulling inspiration directly from her experiences as a diver, Abrego cultivates a deeper understanding of the underwater world through her practice. While facilitating scientific communication through creative expression, her work offers an opportunity to reflect on humanity's relationship to the ocean, the future of the planet, and what can be done to rekindle the collective connection to the natural world. Visit www.havilahabrego.com and follow @havilahabrego on Instagram.

16. STUDIO JKP. Julie is a self-taught South African artist whose vibrant, playful works are a celebration of colour, texture and a nostalgic intuitive expression of childhood memories. After spending decades in the high-pressure corporate world, Julie turned to painting as a creative release and a way to process stress and reconnect with a sense of freedom. Explore her collection @studio_JKP on Instagram.

17. MARÍA CORTÉS, a Madrid-based artist, blends vibrant colour and dreamlike landscapes with the refined eye of a connoisseur shaped by years dealing with Old Masters. Her paintings evoke symbolic worlds of emotion and stillness, where visual poetry unfolds in a timeless dialogue. Discover her new online exhibition "The Leopard's Journey" at mariacortes.art Viewing Room and follow @mariacortesart on Instagram.